

District of 100 Mile House OPEN CALL FOR PHOTOS

CLOSES ON NOV. 20, 2020

The Call for Photos is open to all photographers – professional or amateur.

The District of 100 Mile House requires new photography to bring our municipal and tourism websites up to a higher visual standard and better reflect the community, the region, our residents and features. The attached PDF document will provide photographers with guidance to ensure the new imagery provides our websites with the most impactful response.

Keep in mind that we are looking for “THE” photo that best characterizes the 100 Mile House community, and another that really represents the South Cariboo! But we are also looking for everyday subjects too - and we want to see all seasons. Maybe you already have a photo that you took last summer or even a few years ago. Or head out and capture something new today.
